Bike for Good is seeking two experienced Cycle Trainers to join our award-winning team and help us change lives through cycling!

The Cycle Trainers will deliver a programme of school based cycle training activities (Bikeability level 1-2 and an afterschool Bike Club) for children and young people. They will coordinate the programme directly with our partner schools and their Active Schools Coordinators to ensure it meets the needs of children and young people in the community. This work is part of a wider pilot project which the Cycle Trainers will be directly involved in.

Successful candidates will need a Cycle Trainer Qualification and at least one year of delivery experience, ideally achieved in a school based setting. A patient teaching style is essential for this role as is a passion for supporting and encouraging children and young people to cycle. Experience of working with children and young people with additional support needs is also desirable. A flexible and 'can-do' attitude is key to this role.

Bike for Good strongly believes that it is important to have a diverse workforce. We want to build an inclusive and representative community. We strongly encourage people that identify with a marginalised background (for example – people of colour, people from working-class backgrounds, LGBTQI+ people) to apply for our roles.

To apply please complete the application form on our website. The closing date is Monday 23rd August at 12 noon.

Interviews will take place on Wednesday 25th August and will include a practical assessment.
